

HAVE ROSY CHEEKS AND FEEL FRESH AS A DAISY—TRY THIS!

Says glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.

To see the tinge of healthy bloom in your face, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, to wake up without a headache, backache, coated tongue or a nasty breath, in fact to feel your best, day in and day out, just try inside-bathing every morning for one week.

Before breakfast each day, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it as a harmless means of washing from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store, but is sufficient to demonstrate that. Those who are subject to constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, rheumatic twinges, also those whose skin is sallow and complexion pallid, that one week of inside-bathing will have them both looking and feeling better in every way.—(Adv.)

BROWNING RIFLE NOW MADE IN THREE PLANTS

Washington, Feb. 26.—The Browning machine rifle, adopted for the American army in France and declared by ordnance experts to be the greatest weapon of its kind yet developed, is now being turned out in three factories, Secretary Baker announced today, and more than 100,000 already had been delivered. The guns will be put to an exhibition demonstration on a range here tomorrow.

TRENCH RAIDS MODERN WAR ART

Objects and Scope of Moves
Vary—Some Are Battles En- gaging Thousands of Men.

French Grand Headquarters (Monday, Feb. 25).—(By the Associated Press.)—Trench raids along the French front have increased in intensity during the past month to such an extent that they have become, in some instances, battles in which thousands of men have been engaged and hundreds of prisoners taken. The artillery is throwing un- heard-of quantities of shells.

Sometimes a raid is undertaken in order to identify enemy units, and at other times to improve the lines, or capture observation points. Again a raid may be made to destroy the enemy's works and prevent him from attacking. This was the case in Saturday's raid at Asbach, Alsace, where the Germans were in strongly fortified lines which they had held since December, 1914. The enemy positions were bombarded beyond recognition and placed in such condition as to hinder German operations. The correspondent watched the showers of metal tearing away the wire entanglements, flattening the gun emplacements, and setting fire to the enemy ammunition dumps. The operation was a complete surprise to the Germans and most of them retired to rear positions while French infantry completed the work of the gunners. Only a few prisoners were taken, but most valuable information regarding the enemy's disposition of troops was obtained before the French returned to their own lines.

Front Lines Held Lightly.
Other successful raids in Lorraine, the Argonne and northwest of Rheims have demonstrated the nature of the German defense system. Nearly everywhere the enemy front lines are held lightly and the main bodies of troops are kept so far in the rear that occasionally the French have reached the line and even the fourth line with slight resistance. This is the reason why the enemy's small number of prisoners, but in Lorraine the Germans were caught napping last week and the haul of captured was large, being more than 400.

Raiding Becomes an Art.
In addition to these big raids there have been innumerable smaller ones which have not been mentioned in the official statements. These have been carried out by mere squads who usually bring back a number of prisoners.

SUSPECT GERMANS OF PLOTING PRISON BREAK

Salt Lake City, Utah, Feb. 26.—Further evidence of what is believed to have been a plot on the part of German civilian prisoners at Fort Douglas to kill the officers and guards of the prison camp and escape, came to light yesterday when a second bomb was discovered in the compound. With the finding of the second bomb within forty-eight hours, prison officials began an exhaustive search of the entire prison and grounds on the theory that other explosives had been hidden for use in a general prison break. They expressed the belief that the bombs were constructed to be used as hand grenades against guards or officers who might block the way of escaping prisoners.

DEATH FIVE AIRMEN IN FRANCE IS REPORTED

Washington, Feb. 26.—The deaths of a lieutenant and four cadets resulting from airplane accidents were reported to the war department yesterday by Gen. Pershing. The dead are Lieut. Leland J. Hines, of Orleans, La.; Cadets Clark B. Nichol, Philadelphia; J. F. Stillman, New York City; Donald E. Carlton, Providence, R. I.; and Arthur H. Wilson, Philadelphia.

The message gave no details of the accidents.

Gen. Pershing also reported that Private Ralph R. Spaulding, of Madison, Me., had been killed in action Feb. 13, that two other privates were severely wounded Feb. 19, and one slightly wounded Feb. 23. All were from western states.

Private Paul Crabtree, of Portsmouth, O., died from wounds received in action Nov. 21; Lieut. Thomas W. McCoy, of Elkhart, Ind., died from wounds resulting from the explosion of a hand grenade.

Four deaths from natural causes and two accidental deaths, all privates, from eastern or western states, also were reported.

DECLINES TO BE JUDGED WHILE WORLD TRIBUNAL IS PREJUDICED

Germany, Through Her Chancellor, Declares General Peace Can Be Discussed on Basis Principles Laid Down by Wilson, But Holds Those Principles Must First Be Recognized by all Peoples.

(Associated Press Review.)
Germany, through her chancellor, Count Von Hertling, declares that a general peace can be discussed on the basis of the four principles laid down by President Wilson.

However, the chancellor's acceptance was followed by the statement that the principles must be recognized by all states and peoples, which stage he said had not been reached.

A court of arbitration is lacking, the chancellor said, adding that the tribunal of the world is prejudiced and Germany declines to be judged by it. He insisted that the entente war aims were still imperialistic, although admitting that the president's message is a "small step" toward peace.

Chancellor Von Hertling voiced no great change in Germany's attitude toward the question which entente statesmen have declared to be fundamental. He did not go into great detail concerning the position as to President Wilson's proposals. The subject of the surrender of Russia was gloried in as leading to peace on the eastern front and a hint was thrown out to the Belgian government to enter into separate negotiations with Germany. The problem of Alsace-Lorraine continued to be held as having no international aspect.

Meanwhile, although Russia is ready to conclude peace, the Teuton conquest of her territory goes on apparently unimpeded. Reval, the Russian naval base on the southern coast of the Gulf of Finland, and Pskov, 175 miles southwest of Petrograd, have been occupied. The rapid German advance continues along the line southward, especially in Volynia and Ukraine.

In Siberia the situation is very serious and Japan is reported to be preparing to intervene there very soon. The non-bolshevik forces there have to contend not only with the bolsheviks, but also against released Austro-German prisoners.

Activity on the western battlefronts is still confined to raids, artillery duels and aerial fighting and bombing. There has been an increase in the raiding operations along the Meuse river in Italy, but no change in positions has occurred. Artillery duels and the American sector in France is still intense.

Another German raider, the Wolf, has arrived in port after harassing entente merchant vessels in the Atlantic, Indian and Pacific oceans. The total number of vessels destroyed by the Wolf has not been disclosed, but the loss of eleven, three of them American, in the Indian and Pacific oceans is assumed by the British admiralty to be due to her activities.

Unable to break the British cordon around the North sea, the Wolf slipped into the Austrian port of Pola, on the Adriatic. She brought 400 prisoners and a valuable cargo taken from her prizes. The Wolf equipped with a British warship last February. While the Wolf was gone fifteen months, she apparently did not do as great damage as her famous sister ship, the Moewe, which carried out two raids in the Atlantic in 1915 and 1916.

Count von Hertling, in his reichstag speech, declared that Germany's present military operations in the east were defensive in aim, being intended solely to secure the fruit of peace with the Ukraine and that the Germans did not intend to establish themselves in Esthonia or Livonia.

Apparently the Germans have met resistance at Pskov in their march on Petrograd. One report has the city recaptured by the bolsheviks and street fighting there is mentioned in other dispatches from Petrograd. A general arming of Petrograd's workmen is declared to be in progress with detachments leaving for the line. German advance to offer resistance to the Teutonic progress.

Another victim of the raider Wolf has turned up off the Danish coast, the Spanish steamer Igutz Mendiz, captured by the Wolf in the Indian ocean nine months ago. Apparently while trying to reach a German port after cruising many months with German prize crew on board, she has stranded off the northern extremity of Jutland, Denmark. She brought prisoners, two of whom are Americans, from six ships. Her commander has been interned in Denmark.

GERMAN CHANCELLOR AGREES WITH WILSON

President's Message Regarded as "Small" Step to Peace by Von Hertling.

Amsterdam, Feb. 26.—Speaking before the reichstag yesterday the imperial chancellor, Count Von Hertling, made this declaration:

"I can fundamentally agree with the four principles, which, in President Wilson's view, must be applied in a mutual exchange of views, and thus declare, with President Wilson, that a general peace can be discussed on such a basis."

"Only one reserve need be made in this connection: These principles must not only be proposed by the president of the United States, but must also be recognized by all states and peoples."

"But this goal has not yet been reached. There is still no court of arbitration established by all the nations for the preservation of peace in the name of justice."

"When President Wilson incidentally says that the German chancellor is speaking to the tribunal of the entente world, I must decline that tribunal as prejudiced, joyfully as I would greet it, if an impartial court of arbitration existed to realize such ideals."

"Unfortunately, however, there is no trace of similar statements on the part of the leading powers of the entente, England's war aims are still thoroughly imperialistic and she wants to impose on the world a peace according to England's good pleasure."

"When England talks about the people's rights of self-determination she does not think of applying the principles to Ireland, Egypt and India."

"It has been repeatedly said that we do not contemplate retaining Belgium, but that we must be safeguarded from the danger of a country with which we desire after the war to live in peace and friendship, becoming the object of jumping-off ground of enemy machinations. If, therefore, a proposal came from the opposing side, for example, from the government in Havre, we should not adopt an antagonistic attitude, even though the discussion at first might only be unbinding."

"Meanwhile, I readily admit that President Wilson's message of Feb. 11 is undoubtedly a small step toward a mutual rapprochement."

With reference to a statement recently made by Walter Runciman, president of the board of agriculture in the British cabinet, the chancellor said:

"I can only agree with Mr. Runciman if he meant we would be much nearer peace if responsible representatives of the powers could meet."

"It would be a way to remove all national and unintentional misunderstandings and bring about an agreement on many individual questions. I am thinking especially in this connection of Belgium."

END OF RUSSIAN TROUBLE TO COME

Signing of Peace Pact No Assurance to Germany—Provinces Grow Restive.

London, Feb. 26.—Signing of a Russian-German peace will not be the final solution of the German problem on her eastern frontier and the final settlement will come when the peoples of Courland, Esthonia, Livonia and Poland take matters into their own hands, according to M. Kamenef, one of the bolshevik delegates to the Brest-Litovsk negotiations in an interview in the Daily News. M. Kamenef has arrived in London after a three weeks' journey from Petrograd. He is on his way to Paris as bolshevik plenipotentiary to France.

With the handing over of the land and factories to the peasants and workers, M. Kamenef said, they had begun to realize, as they could not under the old regime, that a German invasion of Russia would injure their vital interests. Consequently the consciousness of the necessity of defending the country was growing among the Russians.

Raised Bitter Hatred.

M. Kamenef said he was convinced the Germans would be unable to import food from the Ukraine because the people there would prevent the trade from fulfilling the promise given Germany.

The raider's invocation of German aid had raised bitter hatred among the workmen and soldiers of the Ukraine. That was the reason, he declared, that the raider had to flee from the Ukraine to the protection of German bayonets.

German occupation of Petrograd, M. Kamenef added, would not be enough to restore the monarchy. Any attempt at restoration would entail fighting in every town and village, for the peasants and workers were well aware that a restoration would involve the loss of their land and political rights.

First Flight of Plane.

Washington, Feb. 26.—The first public flight of an airplane, equipped with the Liberty motor, will be made here probably next week, Representative Hull, of Iowa, said today in announcing that arrangements had been completed to give congressmen an opportunity to see the new engine in action.

Representative Hull, who made a flight yesterday with Col. Lee, of the British Royal Flying corps, also announced that an American army aviator will be chosen by the war department to pilot the American machine and congressmen who have been watching the recent flights of Col. Lee will have a chance to compare the British Rolls-Royce motor with the American product.

FIT DRAFT MEN FOR TECHNICAL ARMY WORK

Washington, Feb. 26.—Six emergency training courses to fit selective service men for technical occupations in the army have been prepared by the federal board of vocational education and will be distributed to schools throughout the country. They are a course for motor truck drivers and chauffeurs; a course for machine shop occupations; blacksmithing, sheet metal working and pipe fitting; a course for electricians, telephone repairmen, linemen and cable splicers; a course for gas engine, motor car and motorcycle repairmen; a course for oxy-acetylene welding; and a course for airplane mechanics, engine repairmen, woodworkers, riggers and sheet metal workers.

The course pamphlets will be available for free distribution to state boards for vocational education, schools and colleges giving such training, or to individuals co-operating with the government in securing the training of mechanics for the army.

GIRLS! BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR AND STOP DANDRUFF

Hair becomes charming, wavy, lustrous and thick in few moments.

Every bit of dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

For a few cents you can save your hair. In less than ten minutes you can double its beauty. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and charming as a young girl's after applying some Danderine. Also try this: moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair, growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty soft, hair, and lots of it, surely get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and just try it.—(Adv.)
